

CENTRAL PARK LIQUOR

'Friendly knowledgeable staff' await you at Central Park Liquor

Central Park Liquor, a cornerstone of Spring Lake Park, isn't just any liquor store. Surprises and pleasant shopping experiences await the customer as they peruse the well-stocked, organized shelves and spacious aisles.

"We want people to have a nice shopping experience," said Joyce Zachmann, director of operations.

Located on the corner of 81st Ave. N.E. and Highway 65, the store carries a wide variety of wines imported from around the world and a large cross-section of liquors and beers to satisfy the most discriminating of tastes. But did you know Central Park Liquor offers a line of craft beers as well? Sam Adams, for instance, Black Lager or Cherry Wheat. Want more of a variety? Then build your own six pack.

"We're always willing to work with our customers," Zachmann said. "If the customer can't find it anywhere else, we will do our best to find it for them."

Looking for a deal? Then, look no further than a special display where select wines and liquors have been greatly discounted. We're talkin' big sale here. Check out the monthly specials, too (also available at www.centralparkliquor.com). Case discounts on liquors and wines as well. And the store accepts competitor's coupons.

Check out the weekly specials on Central Park Liquor's digital sign in front of the store at the corner of 81st Ave. N.E. and Highway 65 in Spring Lake Park.

Municipally Owned

Central Park's buyers routinely attend trade shows and they shop other stores to keep up with on-going trends and to compare prices.

And speaking of prices, Central Park Liquor is municipally owned. That means for every dollar you spend, profits are rolled back into the city of Spring Lake Park's general fund. The funds are used to keep taxes down and are reserved for such special projects as park maintenance, sidewalk improvements and other city services.

But this expansive 10,000 square-foot store goes beyond benefiting taxpayers. Check out the digital sign in front of the store for product sample day. It's your chance to experience a new liquor or wine at no cost.

Central Park Liquor hosts a fall fest in September with a focus on beer tasting. And let's not forget the free, annual cordial tasting event held the Friday before Thanksgiving in November.

A friendly staff go the extra mile to please their patrons.

Looking for a special gift for that someone who has everything? How about a fine bottle of chardonnay or a nice merlot in a beautifully foil gift-wrapped bottle. Gift-wrapping is free of charge. Central Park Liquor not only wraps gifts for the holidays, but all year around. For birthdays, anniversaries. You name it.

"We're friendly and helpful," Zachmann said. "We have a good welcoming staff, hard working and willing to serve."

Got a big order for a party or wedding? Staff will carry your purchases to your vehicle.

Wine Club

Want a fun learning experience? The Central Park Wine Club meets six times a year. For a minimal member fee, special guest speakers share their insights into liqueurs, liquors and fine wines. A meeting might feature a walk-around-style wine sampling event with a variety of about nine wines, served with fruits, cheeses and crackers. Or it might feature a buffet with a bevy of wines. Wine club members receive a 15 percent discount on their wine purchases.

Cigar Shop

And a finely stocked cigar shop is housed within the store with more than 300 facings of cigars (individual boxes showing to customers). A variety of beautifully crafted cedar-lined humidors are offered for sale in this quaint shop. Stop in and check out deals on close-outs and monthly cigar specials. Discounts offered on full boxes. The cigar shop also sells cutters, lighters and pipe tobacco.

Of course, the usual amenities are available at Central Park Liquor. Lottery and Powerball tickets, scratch-offs and cigarettes.

Central Park Liquor once housed on University Avenue in Spring Lake Park and formerly known as University Park Liquor (now Monte's) has been city owned since about 1960. It moved into its current location at 8101 Highway 65 N.E. in 1984.

A pleasant shopping experience awaits you! But don't take our word for it...stop in and see for yourself! Grab a sale flyer at the entrance. Make your way through the amply lit, well-stocked aisles. You won't be disappointed.
